

---

Course Outline

Fire Marshal Syllabus

Course length: 7 hrs

Qualification: Attendance certificate

Syllabus:

- What is Fire Risk Assessment?
- Who must do Fire Risk Assessment?
- Where is Fire Risk Assessment required?
- Why complete Fire Risk Assessment?
- Enforcement.
- Health effects of fire.
- Fire statistics.
- Hazard and risk.
- Role of the fire marshal.

- Method for Fire Risk Assessment:
  1. Identify hazards:
    - Fire triangle.
    - Classification of fires.
    - Ignition, fuel and oxygen sources.
  2. Identify people at risk:
    - Spread of fire.
    - Convection, conduction and radiation.
  3. Evaluate, remove, reduce and protect from risk:
    - Fire precautions.
    - Fire detection and warning.
    - Fire evacuation.
    - Human behaviour.
    - Signage.
    - Fire fighting.
    - Fire protection.
    - Management systems.
  4. Record, plan, instruct, inform and train:
    - Fire action plan.
    - Emergency plan.
    - Maintenance records.
    - Instruction, information and training.
    - Fire marshals/fire wardens.
    - Fire drill.
  5. Review.
    - Examples of Fire Risk Assessment.
    - The role of the fire marshal
    - Fire marshal action on discovering a fire
    - Help, Further Reading and Advice.

Cost: £45 per person + VAT on open courses
 £45 per person (min charge of £270) + VAT for in-house courses

