
Course Outline Introduction to ECG

Course length: 3 hours

Qualification: Introduction to ECG certificate

Syllabus:

- Understand the anatomy and physiology of the heart.
- To understand the principles of ECG monitoring.
- Undertake a 12-lead ECG recording theory and practical session.
- Recognising a normal ECG reading.
- Introduction to some common causes of abnormal ECG readings.
- The role of the health care worker.
- Record keeping.
- Referring to a health care professional.
- Demonstrate ECG 12-lead placement.
- Describe abnormalities.

Cost: £50 per person + VAT (min charge of £320) + VAT for in-house courses

TQUK approved training centre

Highfield approved training centre

RSPH approved training centre